

The apple of God's eye

Balaam was on his way to curse Israel at the request of Balak king of Moab, even though the Lord had said "You shall not go ... you shall not curse the people, for they are blessed" (Num. 22:12 NKJV). But Balaam was stopped in his tracks when an angel of the Lord blocked his way. God opened the mouth of his faithful donkey, while Balaam whacked her with his stick for all he was worth. Fortunately for Balaam, his donkey saw what he didn't see and had the good sense to lie down on the job. Balaam came within a hairsbreadth of divine judgement that day. He had to learn that if God says a thing, He means it. When he finally met up with Balak, they went to three different vantage points, from where Balak expected Balaam to curse Israel. Instead, Balaam blessed them. Three times over! He had learned his lesson:

"How shall I curse whom God has not cursed? And how shall I denounce whom the Lord has not denounced?" (Num. 23:8).

"God is not a man, that He should lie, Nor a son of man, that He should repent. Has He said, and will He not do? Or has He spoken, and will He not make it good?" (Num. 23:19).

"Then he took up his oracle and said: 'The utterance of Balaam the son of Beor, The utterance of the man whose eyes are opened, The utterance of him who hears the words of God, Who sees the vision of the Almighty, Who falls down, with eyes wide open: How lovely are your tents, O Jacob! Your dwellings, O Israel! Like valleys that stretch out, Like gardens by the riverside, Like aloes planted by the Lord, Like cedars beside the waters ... Blessed is he who blesses you, And cursed is he who curses you.' (Num. 24:3-9).

Israel was, and still is, 'the apple of God's eye'. Woe to anyone who dares lay a finger on His ancient people, because the future purposes of God and the future blessings He has in store for this world are centred on the land of Israel and the return of Israel's Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ. Yes! That same eternal Person who was born in Bethlehem was crucified for us sinners, who rose from the dead and is "able to save to the uttermost those who come to God through Him." (Heb. 7:25).

All who place their trust in Jesus are assured of similar protection and blessing from the Almighty - "For the eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show Himself strong on behalf of those whose heart is loyal to Him." (2 Chr. 16:9).

Diets and Lives challenged in Cromer

On Lord's Day 11 December we held our Christmas Tea and Carol Service. We started with a sumptuous buffet which included turkey, pigs in blankets and a good selection of sandwiches and quiches. This was followed by desserts which included Pavlovas, fresh fruit salad, chocolate logs and of course Christmas cake and mince pies. Suitably filled, we then enjoyed a time of carol singing interspersed with Bible readings which told the story of the birth of Jesus. We finished our evening with a Bible talk which reminded us that the Christmas lights we enjoy at this time of the year are nothing compared to the enjoyment we can have in knowing Jesus, the light of the world. The Christmas lights only come out at Christmas and are then put away. Does that apply to Jesus, too? There was no room at the inn for Jesus, do we have room for Him? We concluded our evening with the words of the lovely hymn "Have you any room for Jesus?" We are so thankful for the good attendance and pray that the ongoing work of the Holy Spirit will result in lives responding to the challenge of the Gospel message.

For Prayer Ministering Brethren

(February and onwards)

Gbenga Fagbenle

I hope to work throughout January and February in Alagbole Assembly, Akute, Ogun State and our study centre in Ikorodu, Lagos.

Mark Imoukhuede

I shall continue to give support to the Assembly in Kubwa during February and March, God willing.

Brian Johnston

From 22 February to 20 March, I plan to be in the Philippines.

Geralde Magasura

I will continue to strengthen the saints in Malabog and visit Churches. When Brian arrives in late February, our schedule (DV) is:

25 February - revival fellowship in New Dalaguete.

26 February - crusade in Tagnucon, Nabunturan

4 March - crusade at central in Malabog

9-11 March - adult camp

18 March - revival fellowship in Longanapan, and afterwards, visit the new group of interest in Datu Amponan, Laak, 20 km from Bullucan. Jimmy and I did a crusade and follow-up in this place. We are glad to see a dozen people are interested.

Lian Za Nang (James) and SB Khupboih

Although it's not for February we should share with you that by God's grace brothers James, Joseph and Khupboih yesterday arrived safely in Yangon. Today we have the Church gathering from 9 am – 11 am, and we plan to visit saints' families each day up to Wednesday. If it is God's will, we will go back to Munlai on Thursday. Afterwards, we will visit Khumnuai Assembly and in the third week of January, DV, we plan to have camp in Suangphei. From 1 February we are going to reopen the school in Munlai community hall.

Karl Smith

I continue with following up contacts locally where there is a good degree of interest at present plus support for Assemblies in the District.

Robert Wood

My future movements are somewhat uncertain because of ill health in the family. Edna has sustained a spinal injury which requires me to be near to help (I'm learning to be a carer).

Thankfully, the Gospel mission field is never far away, and I would anticipate participating in local Gospel outreach in Aberdeen and surrounding areas to Banff and Whitehills, as I have done now for quite some time. The pattern of work remains the same but different folks are met.

David Woods

February will see me engaged in local and North West District work, as usual, and a visit to the Northern Ireland Men's Study Day, DV.

Visit to Ghana

It was a great pleasure to pay another visit to the Assemblies in Ghana before the end of 2022. Christmas weekend was spent with the saints in Winneba. I joined them at the new outreach location in Senya Breku on Christmas Eve, when about 100 children gathered to listen to Bible Stories. Gifty Coffie, Jacob Asimayi, and Tawiah Ennudazies were at hand to help as we shared light refreshments with the children.

Ministry was given to the saints in Winneba on Lord's Day after the Remembrance, followed by Bible Study. On the next day, Boxing Day, the young people gathered on the Assembly premises to participate in different games while the sisters were busy cooking food to be served to all those present as the day was tagged 'Community Day of Hope'. The sick and the aged in the community were not left out. The food was well enjoyed. Those who gathered in the hall had the Gospel presented to them.

There was a good turnout at the 31 December Cross Over Night programme of the Church in Kasoa as well as the Lord's Day Service. I had the opportunity to present the Gospel again. The time spent with the Assemblies was very encouraging. The saints are making a good effort to keep the activities of the Assemblies going on. The economy is biting. They will appreciate our continued prayers for the Lord's blessings on their outreach efforts. I pray for another opportunity to visit again soon.

Mark Imoukhuede

Coffee Corner

On 21 December 2022, we held our Coffee Corner Christmas lunch and four large tables were filled. We had a three-course lunch, all supplied by our sisters, which was very much appreciated. Following lunch, we had a quiz relating to this time of the year led by Granville, who was assisted by one of Santa's elves, after which we sang some carols.

Our speaker was Gordon McKay (local to the Church as he was brought up in Kirkintilloch and attended Sunday school and youth work). Gordon continued on the local theme, bringing into his message a firm in Milton of Campsie, which was the means of quite a few getting saved and coming into Fellowship. The firm made packaging and other little objects; he brought a "Piggy" bank in the shape of a loaf of bread made by the firm. It was a savings bank given to firms collecting for Charity. He also brought a Royal Mail posting box which was a savings box. He went on to relate to the mail strike where Christmas cards and invitations were never received. He emphasised God's invitation and ended his message with a verse from Scripture - "Come to me, all who labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest..." (Mat. 11: 28).

'New Year - New Start' Informal Gospel Event

Regent Hall, the meeting place of the Church of God in Kirkintilloch was packed for this special outreach event which took place on the second Sunday in January. We had excellent support from Assemblies across Scotland and the many contacts that they brought along to hear the Gospel.

The programme was informal and lively, arresting the attention of both young and older folk. David and Norma Aitken tested us with a brilliant quiz. Then Tony Smith, ably assisted by Elsie Meek on the keyboard, vigorously conducted the community hymn singing. A short video clip was shown featuring a song called 'A New Start', followed by Ian Lithgow from Kilmarnock who held our attention with a powerful Gospel message.

There were opportunities after the event to talk with visitors over an abundance of savouries and cakes. It was great to share the 'Good News' of the Saviour in an informal setting and we are praying that the Lord may transform lives as a result.

Report from the Church of God in Bundaberg

The Church of God in Bundaberg, planted on 11 November 1979, continues steadfastly by the grace and mercy of God. There are 14 on the roll, that is 9 residents and 4 in New South Wales, of which two are in a retirement/nursing home, and 1 in New Zealand. The usual Lord's Day attendance is 9.

Other activities include open gatherings on 4 Fridays each month for hymn singing, Bible reading and sharing: 1st Friday (all), 2nd Friday (sisters), 3rd Friday (brethren), 4th Friday (sisters), with a break in January and December.

We also enjoy quarterly lunches at the hall, with a break-up this year on the 4th, as shown in the photo. Two regular visitors with children came along, but two saints from the Church were unable to attend. A bonus was the celebration of our dear sister Mary Case's 80th birthday:

Thank you for your prayers, as we also continue in prayer for you all (Eph. 6:18).

Melbourne, Australia report

It is a cold, almost wintry, day in November here in Melbourne, Australia, with us experiencing one of the wettest winters/springs for many a year. Never mind, we in the Church of God in Melbourne continue steadfastly in the testimony of the Lord Jesus despite the wintry chills of the world we live in. We enjoy the fellowship of our Lord Jesus and each other. The Assembly was affected during the pandemic with the shutting down of our very successful friendship meal and film & quiz nights. Unfortunately, those meetings have not resumed after the extensive lockdowns. The Assembly meetings are back to normal and there is some outreach regained. Tracts are given out regularly in the main street of the local town centre near the hall in Croydon where Rob and Edna Wood used to give out tracts several years ago during their visits. We have an informal Gospel meeting every Lord's Day at 5.00 p.m., with a sign at the front inviting folk to find a "Fresh Start to Life, even Eternal Life". Although we have experienced sadness during the past year or so with losses, we long for new disciples to be made or restored and pray that the Lord will grant us a blessing.

Quite often, we have a fellowship lunch in the hall or a meal at a restaurant for fellowship with one another and for the togetherness of the saints. This is good in helping to keep us together as a small gathering.

We have, however, been blessed with the arrival of our dear Burmese Chin family from Brisbane Australia, who came to reside here in Melbourne over two years ago. They arrived just before Covid started. They are a family of Dad - Do Pau - and Mum - Huai No, two young boys - Khai Khai and Muang Muang - and their little sister Pok Pok. Although the parents have a language difficulty they are improving with practice. Our brother Do Pau was saying he no longer reads the Burmese Bible but now reads only the English Bible. It was good news to hear that Huai No, Do's wife, has just passed her citizenship test and now can become a citizen of Australia.

On Lord's Day 30 October we celebrated Do Pau's birthday with a celebratory lunch and a birthday cake after the Remembrance. It was a very pleasant time together and their three children enjoyed it also.

Our three sisters in Christchurch (Lyn, Margaret and Mildred) continue very faithfully in the Faith and gather for Bible studies regularly. Lyn Lingard was over in Bundaberg and Melbourne recently and thoroughly enjoyed the fellowship and particularly the Remembrance of the Lord Jesus. Also, we endeavour to connect with them once a month via Zoom for a Christ-centred message.

Moreover, the ladies from Melbourne and Christchurch have Zoom Bible studies once a week on a Monday and this has spread to Victoria, Canada. where they all enjoy study and prayer together. We are also enjoying the presence of David and Rhoda King who have arrived for two months visiting the Assembly, and their son Ross, and Sarah and two boys Reuban & Eli.

Baptism in Aberkenfig

Ruth Stanley, eldest daughter of James and Nicola, arrived home from her studies in the USA on 15 December, was baptised on 17 December and added to Aberkenfig Assembly on 18 December. The baptism was greatly anticipated and proved to be an enjoyable and God-glorifying occasion. Tom Palmer and Dave Allen (Cardiff), with Sharon Jones (Aberkenfig), provided the musical accompaniment to songs chosen by Ruth, Tony Jones acted as MC, Ruth's father James baptised Ruth, and Ira Williamson (Trinidad, Colorado), via Zoom, gave a positive word of the Gospel with added encouragement to Ruth. Through God's grace, Ruth's studies took her to Trinidad, staying not far from the Assembly hall, allowing her to meet regularly with the saints and to become convinced that the way of God for her was through obedience and addition to a Church of God. The Trinidad study time has been a wonderful blessing for Ruth and she personally requested Ira's involvement in her baptism. It was encouraging to all when Ira turned his computer around to show several Trinidad saints who had joined him to witness the baptism. Ruth will soon be returning to Trinidad and we leave it to the Lord to direct Ruth's future steps as she walks with Him.

Lindsay and Joy Woods: Golden Wedding Anniversary

On 23 December 2022, our dear brother and sister Lindsay and Joy Woods celebrated 50 years of marriage. We commemorated this landmark together in Shiloh Hall following the Remembrance on Lord's Day 18 December, before Lindsay and Joy headed off to spend time with family in England where more times of celebration were enjoyed. Lindsay and Joy are a wonderful example to us of what marriage in the Lord looks like and show us a lovely picture of the stable unity that we are all a part of in our union with the Lord Jesus Himself. Natasha and David, and their families, also wish to acknowledge God's goodness in their parents' marriage, and their fine example of godly living over the years as motivated by the love of Christ.

We again take this opportunity to congratulate Lindsay and Joy, and to wish them God's richest blessings as they continue to serve Him together!

At home with the Lord – Isobel Green, Ayr, Scotland

It is with a great sense of sadness we report that our dearly beloved sister Isobel was called home on 8 October 2022.

Before moving to Ayr, Isobel with her husband Ross and family lived in Barrhead. It was there that Isobel accepted a Gospel leaflet outside the Barrhead Hall. Isobel had previously attended a small Mission Hall in Glasgow. Seeing her interest, and hearing that she had three young children, she was told about Sunday School, the Wednesday night children's hour and Auchenfoyle Camp.

Isobel became a regular attendee at the monthly Family Service there as well as a series of special meetings at which Guy Jarvie was the speaker. One night his message was from Psalm 46:10, "Be still and know that I am God." Isobel was concerned about what was best for her children and these words continued to resonate with her as she made her way home. This was at a time when there was a short Bible talk on TV after the late evening news. Isobel tuned in to hear the minister speak on the very same verse she had heard earlier in the evening. There, at home, she realised that God was speaking directly to her, and she immediately accepted the Lord Jesus as her Saviour. Before long, she was baptised and added to the Church of God in Barrhead. Soon Ross got saved, was baptised and added to the Barrhead Assembly, having benefited from the Bible teaching of Jack Ferguson. Their children, Kim, Ross and Ann, also made a profession of faith in the Lord Jesus as their personal Saviour.

In 1979, Ross and Isobel were transferred to Ayr Assembly when Ross moved to take up a new position in the aerospace industry locally. Isobel was widowed in 2003, accepting with great grace that the Lord knows the end from the beginning and therefore that He knows best. Despite deteriorating health and hearing, Isobel was faithful in her attendance at the meetings of the Assembly until a few weeks before her home call, when she went to stay beside the bonnie banks of Loch Lomond, close to where Ross Snr. had grown up, to be in the care of her devoted family. It was there that her lovely nature shone forth once more when she sent messages of loving friendship to each family in the Assembly. We miss her greatly. A treasured jewel here and on the crown of Him who saved her. We will meet again where pain and sorrow are no more. Blessed be the name of the Lord.

At the service in the hall, Simon Davison spoke words of comfort and encouragement. Isobel herself was a great encourager. At the graveside, Andy McFarlane, a long-time friend of the family, reflected on Isobel's life and commended the family to the Lord in prayer. Please remember in your prayers all the family, not forgetting Isobel's grandchildren and great-grandchildren, that each one will come to know the blessings which come from God alone who truly loves us unconditionally.

At home with the Lord – Alec Bartlett, Aberkenfig, Wales

Our dear, faithful brother Alec Bartlett was called home on 2 September 2022, 13 days after his 94th birthday. Although Alec's parents lived in London, his mother having made the trip to her parents' home meant that Alec was born near Aberkenfig. His grandfather, Jesse Doel, had been instigational in the planting of Aberkenfig Assembly in 1912, and it met upstairs in his house. Alec lived there until the age of 2 before the family was settled again in London. In July 1944, 16-year-old Alec was present for the Remembrance in Aberkenfig, recorded in the register as Alex Bartlett (London), though Wembley Assembly, of which he was a member, was planted that year.

Alec married Ruth on 10 June 1950 and they had two sons, Phil and Doug. They served the Lord as 'stalwarts', the word chosen by Ken Reilly in their transfer letter to Aberkenfig in 1987 for their retirement years close to family roots. That stalwart service continued through the years and many testify to their hospitality amongst other features, both in Wembley and Aberkenfig. Alec always had a wealth of interests and was able to converse with all. Ruth was called home in 2010, and even though he missed her greatly he adapted to his changed circumstances, remaining in that same house until admission to hospital the day before his sudden home call. In Alec's later years, he managed his increasingly deteriorating health conditions and other setbacks, expressing frequently a heartfelt "I am wonderfully blessed". He attended the Remembrance in Aberkenfig until the pandemic, and increasing weakness reduced its frequency to occasional.

There was good representation at his funeral from family, South East District and South Wales, evidencing his popularity. The Golden Bells text for the day of his death was referred to in the service by both Phil in his memories of his dad and Tony Jones in his message as being apposite to Alec and his legacy - "Is not wisdom found among the aged? Does not long life bring understanding?" [Job 12:12]. The graveside involved reading the Scriptures of the believer's hope from John 14 and 1 Thes. 4. He is missed, but that hope is now his reality. Alec leaves behind his 2 sons, Phil and Doug, and their wives, 4 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren.

West Scotland Convention

We were blessed with a good time of fellowship on 2 January when over 70 gathered at the Normandy Hotel. We were thankful for good travelling conditions, especially for Tony Jones and Steve Seddon who had travelled up from Manchester for the day.

Our first speaker was Alister McCarty, Belfast. He focused on Psalm 33, which opens with a call to praise. We have a new song to sing. The psalmist enumerates good reasons for doing so: vv.4-5 shows God's moral qualities; vv. 6-9 His power in creation; vv.10-12 His governmental involvement in the world; vv.14-15 the greatness of God. All this provides us with abundant material for intelligent worship based on our appreciation of the Divine character. The One who rules over all and sees all is the One in whom His treasured possession can have full confidence for every situation on our journey home. Alister concluded with a lengthy quote from Spurgeon which concludes: 'The root of faith in due time bears the flower of rejoicing and confidence creates joy.'

Tony Jones, Aberkenfig, took us to John 1, relating it to outreach in the Day of Salvation with the command to 'go and tell' others the good news. We must not take the easy way, opting out by assuming that people don't want to hear. John 1:24-28 shows us John the Baptist dealing with a sceptical audience, directing them to the greatness of the One who was to come. John points out, indeed commands, people to look and see the all-sufficient sacrificial Lamb of God in vv.29-31. This is our task too. We can use the story of our own testimony and assurance, as John did in vv. 32-34. The impact of this approach is seen in vv. 35-37 when two disciples left him to follow the One 'who must increase'. Jesus' question, "What do you want?" (v. 38) is one we can utilise when meeting with people. He is the answer to humanity's deepest needs. His "Come!" changed their lives forever. Thus excited by their contact with the Lord they immediately reached out to family members, with powerful effect.

The chapter ends with hints of worship and a promise of greater things to come for those who trust in our Lord Jesus.

After a break, Tony gave us an insightful review of the circumstances that fellow believers are experiencing in Myanmar and the benefits of Zoom contacts for building them up in their faith. He encouraged us to prayerfully support them as others had done for Paul, helping together with their prayers for him (2 Cor. 1:10-11).

Karl Smith concluded our time with a light-hearted quiz before we adjourned for a buffet to complete our day together with thankful hearts for the Lord's blessing.
