PREFACE TO 1888-1984 EDITION

Prior to the preparation of the present comprehensive index there were four previous indexes compiled at various times since the publication of Needed Truth commenced in 1888, as well as a separate one for "Jottings". For ease of reference it was therefore decided to provide a single index to cover the whole period since 1888.

As will be readily appreciated, the task of compilation has been a heavy one and we are indebted to our co-editor R.A. Parker for his painstaking work on the project. Others have given generous help in various ways and we express to them our grateful thanks. In offering this comprehensive index to our readers we are deeply conscious of God's goodness and preserving care over nearly a century. We trust it will afford the means for ready access to an extensive library of articles on scriptural subjects and promote the study of (to quote from a previous index) "a very precious heritage of truth relating to the collective position of the people of God...committed to the present generation".

NOTES

1. Entries have been made in strict alphabetical sequence i.e. based on each letter of the alphabet and not on word sequence.
2. For easy reference, year and page are given instead of volume number and page.
3. Sections in previous indexes allocated to poetry, Jottings and young believers have been dispersed throughout the index. Question and answer sections have been recorded by giving the reference to the passage of scripture contained in the question.
4. In the case of books of the Bible the specific chapters and verses are listed first and the general headings afterwards, e.g.

Isaiah 1978.71

Isaiah 6: 1947.81,82

Isaiah 21:11-12 (poem) 1899.244...etc.

Isaiah and the Lord's coming 1919.6,37,62,103,107,145

5. Entries having the same title are entered under one heading followed by the years and pages.
6. A series of articles has been entered by giving the title, number of articles, year and the first page of the series, e.g. Christian living XII 1975.9,etc.

Preface

A comprehensive Index to Needed Truth volumes between 1888 and 1984 was published in 1985, after much painstaking effort. A first supplement was then published in 1991 and another in 1996. Now this updated Index, covering the years 1888-2016, enables readers to efficiently search for article titles in all volumes printed to date (including the content of Wholesome Words, published 1909-1913).

This supplement is presented in almost identical format to the former one. The listings appear in the same manner as the previous Indices, thus:

1. Entries are in strict alphabetical order. Numbered Bible books appear alphabetically under their names (e.g. 1 Kings appears under "Kings"). For this edition, all book, chapter and verse references have been consistently abbreviated. This has no significant effect on the printed version of the Index, but since a PDF version has also been produced, this will enable complete and efficient computer searching for any Bible passage mentioned in the Article Titles. A list of the abbreviations of Bible books used appears on the next page.
2. Because numbers are sorted by the first character, in some cases the references will appear out of sequence. E.g., Ps.119 will appear before Ps.19, etc. and Bible books will appear in alphabetic, not their OT or NT order. (It would be possible to re-order the lists, but it is considered reasonable to expect users to easily overcome this quirk, so the extra time commitment is not justified.)
3. Needed Truth references are to Volume year and page number; e.g. 1986.3 refers to page 3 in the volume for 1986. Until the end of 1893, Volumes were published each October and included magazine content originally printed in 12 consecutive months in two successive years. Thus Volume 1 includes content for 1888-1889.
4. All entries are cross-referenced for significant words in the Article Title.
5. Articles forming a series appear in the index by their overall Article Title, then information on the number of articles in the series is given by way of Roman numerals, after the first page reference of the series is given, e.g.
"Bible Principles of Separation, 1987.3, etc XII"
6. In earlier Indices, citations to Wholesome Words volumes were explicitly indicated by "W.W." against the respective entry. This identifier has been discontinued as it serves no useful purpose.

PREFACE TO 1888-2018 EDITION

The general framework of past indices has been continued. The earlier Prefaces are included for guidance, subject to minor modification as below.

For this edition, all Bible references have been consistently abbreviated. This has no significant effect on the printed version of the Index, but since a PDF version has also been produced, this will enable complete and efficient computer searching for any Bible passage mentioned in the Article Titles.

Because the content of the Index has been automatically sorted using computer software, it will be noticed that some Bible references now appear at the beginning of the Index, because they include a numeral at the beginning.

Because numbers are sorted by the first character, in some cases the references will appear out of sequence. E.g., Ps.19 and Ps.119 will both appear before Ps.2, etc. It would be possible to re-order the lists, but it is considered reasonable to expect users to easily overcome this quirk, so the time commitment is not justified.

In earlier Indices citations to Wholesome Words volumes were indicated by W.W. against the respective entry. Wholesome Words was published instead of Needed Truth for a few years in the early 1900s. This identifier has been discontinued as it now serves no useful purpose. The Wholesome Words content is still included in the Index, but is just not separately identified as such.
